

Make the Stream Smart choice

- Riparian zones are the heavily vegetated areas along streams. They provide wildlife habitat and shade for salmon, stabilize soil, soak up rainwater, and filter pollutants.
- Healthy riparian areas help reduce flooding.
- You can create a healthy riparian zone by removing non-native and invasive species and planting native trees and shrubs.
- Cultivating a healthy riparian zone can be a big job. Not sure where to start? Visit us at:

www.Stream-Smart.com/pledges/riparian

TAKE THE PLEDGE

Go Native!

Prevent Water Pollution
By Restoring Riparian Zones

Change
Starts With You!

Pledge to be Stream Smart at:
www.Stream-Smart.com

